Honored With An Orchid

At the Commencement exercises for the class of 1956, the 75th class to graduate from the Decatur High School, an orchid was presented to Mrs. C. A. Dugan, a member of the first class to graduate from our High School.

John Welch, representing Decatur High School adult supporters, presents a check to School Board Treasurer Everett Hutker to pay for our fine new scoreboard at Worthman Field.

SENIOR CLASS

In September, 69 of us entered the ever familiar doors of the Decatur Jr.-Sr. High School to begin our final year of high school education.

We elected class officers and a sponsor.

President — Fred Schott

Vice-President — Paul Schmidt

Secretary — Lorraine Walters

Treasurer — Tony Kelly

Sponsor — Miss Vera

In November we worked hard on the Student Day Sale, which turned out to be very successful.

In January, we were privileged to witness a naturalization ceremony at the Courthouse as part of our Civics and Sociology classes.

On February 13, we visited the State House at Indianapolis. This trip was very educational and enjoyable.

May 17 meant the Junior-Senior Prom. The juniors did a wonderful job of planning and decorating around the theme, "Calypso." They made the Prom something that all the seniors will remember.

Our Baccalaureate services were held on the following Sunday.

Finally May 23 and the big night toward which all of us had been working, Commencement, arrived. We heard a challenging speech by Rev. Robert B. Pierce, Minister of the Broadway Methodist Church, Indianapolis, Indiana. Mr. Helm presented the seniors with their diplomas. The Commencement dance followed after graduation. After the dance entertainment was provided throughout the night by various organizations of the city.

Each senior has many wonderful memories of his high school career at good old D. H. S.

Junior Class

Last September, seventy-seven brand new juniors entered the halls of D. H. S. to start the school year of '56-'57 as upper classmen.

Early in the year we elected class officers as follows:

President — Larry Moses
 Vice President—Janalee Smith
 Secretary — Linda Norris
 Treasurer — Clarence May

On November 2, we went on the annual Junior Trip to Detroit, Michigan, and Windsor, Canada. Two teachers, Mr. Dorwin and Mr. Andrews, were brave enough to chaperon the trip. We enjoyed the sights of the Ford Museum, Ford Rotunda and the Ford Factory in Detroit.

The members of our class are active in all activities of the school, such as the Art Club, F. H. A., F. F. A., Choir, Commercial Club, Band, and "D" Club. We are especially proud of the junior boys in the "D" Club.

We climaxed the year with the annual Junior-Senior Prom, with the seniors as the honored guests.

Well, we have finished our green freshman year. We are now sophomores. The first thing we did was elect class officers. They are as follows: Bob Shraluka, president; Judy Rhodes, vice-president; Patty Girod, secretary, and Steve Edwards, treasurer. We also elected Mr. Wemhoff as sponsor for a second year.

To represent us in the Student Council, we elected Bob Shraluka and Sharron Sheets.

Our first dance of the year was the "Sophomore Sendoff," and it was a great success.

We were represented in various areas by our classmates. Many boys were on the athletic teams this year. We had approximately fifteen on the honor roll. Two of our girls, Cheryl Ashbaucher and Gloria Wall, were second team cheerleaders.

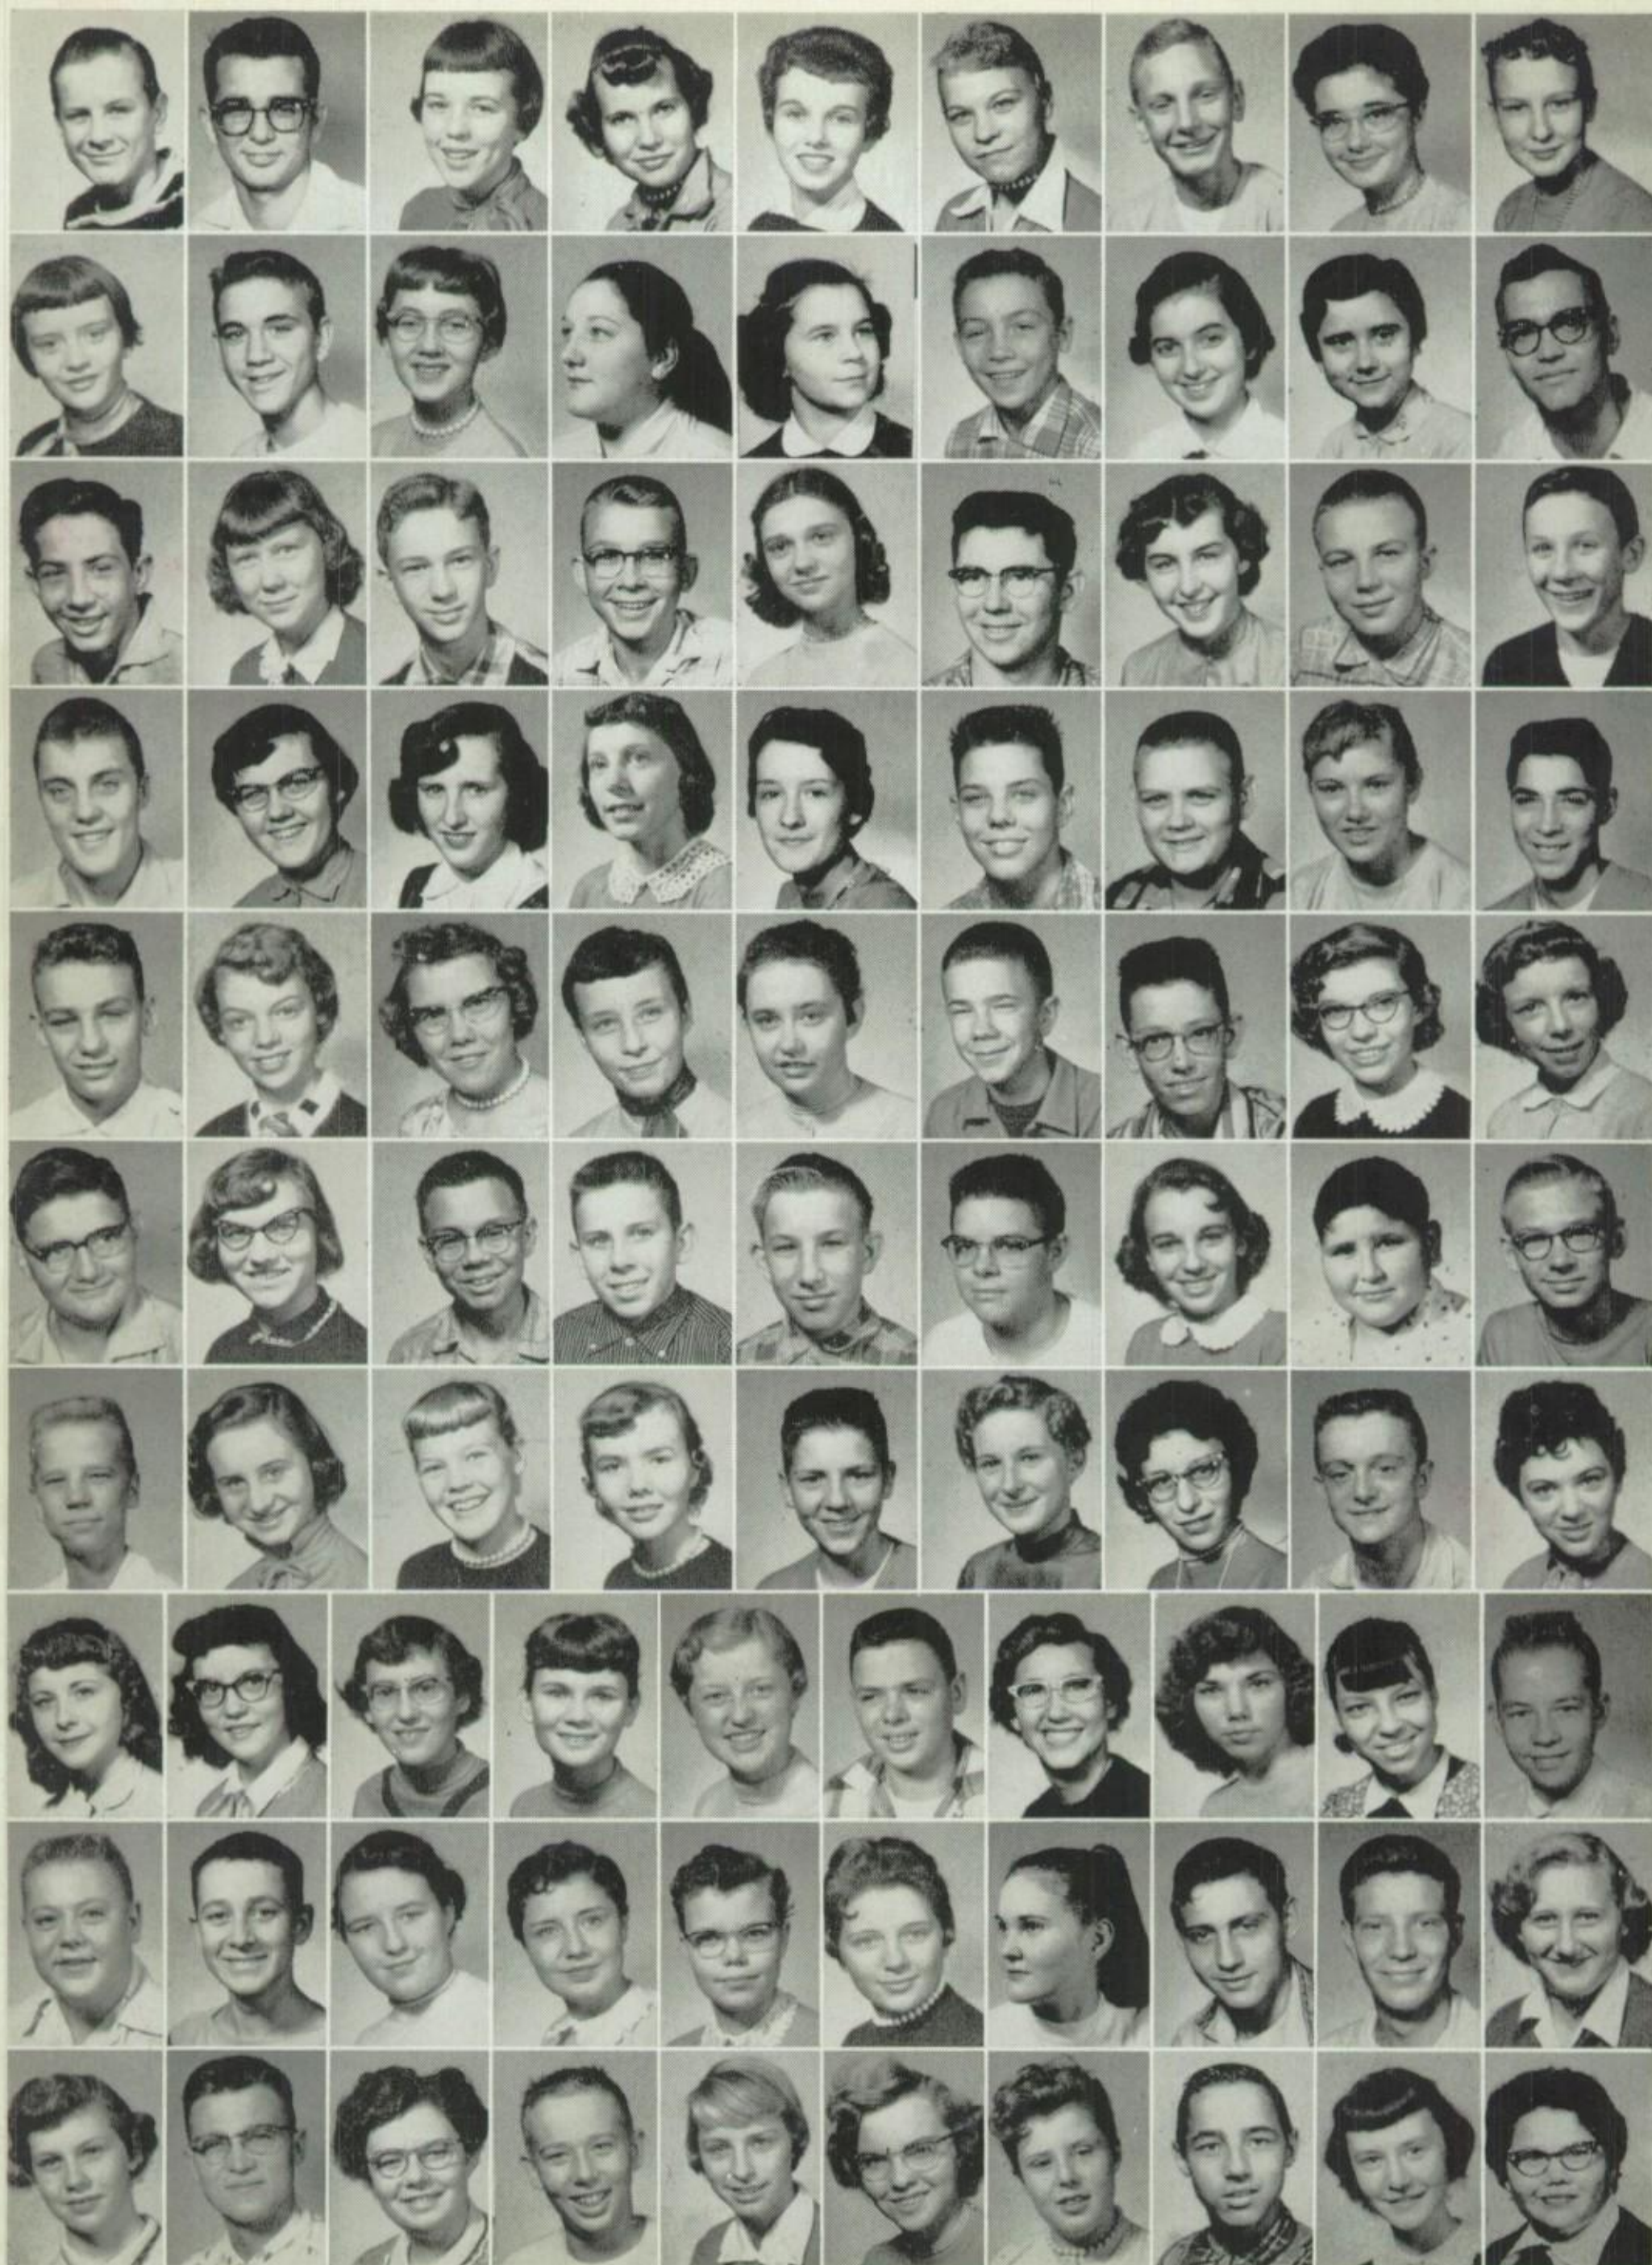

Everyone enjoyed our Chicago trip, including Mr. and Mrs. Smith, and Mr. Cobb.

We'll be back next year as juniors, and then watch us go.

Shortly after the beginning of school, we freshmen elected our class officers. They are as follows: president, Jim Reidenbach; vice-president, Joe Smith; secretary, Alice Allwein, and treasurer, Jack Dailey.

The Student Council had the following representatives from the freshman class: Kathy Patrick, Alice Allwein, and Jim Reidenbach.

Several boys received athletic awards through the year.

Several students in the Latin I class received certificates of excellence on their tests.

Two of the girls—Alice Allwein and Janice Aumann—were second team cheerleaders.

The school year started for the eighth grade with the election of officers. Stewart Knodel was elected president; Ed Nelson, vice-president; Suetta Johnson, secretary, and Ron August, treasurer. We chose Mr. McColly for our class sponsor.

The three cheerleaders—Mary Heller, Sharon Nern, and Dianne Hill—did a fine job with the cheering section for our team, which included seven boys from the eighth grade. They are John Cowan, Ed Nelson, Ron August, Tom Grabill, Tom Johnson, Tom Sharpe, and Stu Knodel. The Jr. High team won seven out of nine games.

Three eighth graders were elected to the Student Council; they are Peggy McCammon, Ed Nelson and Stewart Knodel.

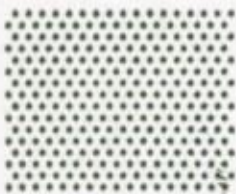

With basketball and other activities over, the semester will close with everyone looking forward to the annual Eighth Grade party.

PRESIDENT

The Student Council

With the thought in mind that their only job was to help make D. H. S. a better school, the Student Council, under the guidance of Mr. Amos Ketchum, began weekly meetings as soon as it was possible last fall. Their first order of business was the election of the following officers: president, Paul Schmidt; vice-president, Bob Shraluka; secretary, Larry Moses.

As had been the custom from previous years, hall check committees were assigned, and each week the winning hall was announced.

The next project was the most important of the year. A citizenship committee was appointed which drew up a code of ethics called "Our Code," which suggested a plan of action to be taken to help the code be used to its best advantage. The Student Council then presented "Our Code," which was unanimously accepted by the students.

The Student Council was once again very successful during this last year, thus continuing to raise its importance and efficiency, and setting a precedent for the ensuing years.

Ravelings Staff

For years it has been the privilege of each Ravelings staff to present to the pupils and faculty of D.H.S. the book of the year. The staff this year has indeed enjoyed its privilege to collect in written and pictorial form, edit, and present to the readers of this book, the most interesting events of our High School this year.

As each staff has had its own peculiar problems to solve, so this year we have met certain difficulties. All these must be overcome and a time schedule maintained.

All difficulties are forgotten, however, in just pride for an attained goal. In that sense we, with justifiable pride, take great pleasure in presenting to you "The Ravelings" of 1957.

Color Wheel

The forty-two members of the Color Wheel started the year by electing officers as follows: Twannette Magley, president; Linda Gamsby, vice-president; John Isch, secretary-treasurer.

Under the capable supervision of Miss Kauffman many and various activities unfolded.

For the annual Open House in November the Art Club designed and printed the programs. In December the Art Club decorated the windows at the ends of the building with Nativity murals. In March the Art Club sponsored an exhibit of paintings by adults in Decatur and the surrounding area. A musical program was presented in connection with the art exhibit.

CHOIR DIRECTOR

HELEN HAUBOLD

D. H. S. Choir

This year, fifty-eight members of the choir of D. H. S. elected as their officers Stanley Kirkpatrick, president; Twannette Magley, vice-president; Gene Baxter, secretary, and Dewayne Agler, treasurer.

Throughout the year the choir presented several programs under the capable direction of Miss Helen Haubold and with the assistance of our talented accompanist.

The choir made its first public appearance in October, when it sang at the Methodist Church for Spiritual Emphasis Week. In November, the choir sang at the annual Open House. For the Christmas program, the choir gave the Nativity in word, picture, and song. Also in December, the choir sang for the Rotary Club.

Our next activity was a dance at the Community Center after the Angola game. Dan Johnson spun the platters, and the dance was a big success.

Instead of the traditional spring revue, the choir had a pop concert in which we sang a variety of numbers. In April, the D. H. S. Choir hosted the Berne and Bluffton choirs in a choral festival given at the Decatur High School auditorium. The combined choirs were under the direction of a guest conductor.

The last public appearances of the Choir were for Baccalaureate and Commencement. As we practiced for the songs to be sung on those nights, we recalled all the exciting experiences that we had as choir members and hoped that the underclassmen would have as enjoyable a time as we have had as members of the D. H. S. Choir.

The Decatur High School Band

This year the band again displayed great ingenuity, originality, and hard work in the unusual football maneuvers which they performed on the football field. At the basketball games they were "on the ball" as usual with entertaining music for everyone's taste. Also every year they perform little "extra" concerts for special enjoyment, such as playing at the Veterans Hospital at Fort Wayne, giving the annual Spring Concert, and going to a college football game on Band Day. This year they selected Manchester College. The Band added to its collection of difficult instruments by purchasing a Piccolo, French Horn, Eb Horn, and a Celesta, which you enjoyed at the Christmas program with the Brass Ensemble. This year, too, they tried something different with a joint festival with Berne and Bluffton, featuring also the art and choir departments.

Student Directors: Jerry Kaehr, Jane Stiverson.

Majorettes: Marceda Whetstone, Jean Wass, Jane Wass, Rebecca Jackson, Bobbilon Butler.

F. H. A.

One of the first things we did this year was elect the following officers: president, Connie Douglas; vice-president, Donna Miller; secretary, Jackie Burke; treasurer, Lois Gerke; historian, Phyllis Byrd; parliamentarian, Marjie Wolfe; editor, Beverly Thieme; song leader,

Our next project was the float we entered in the Halloween Parade. In November we sponsored a dance. In December we prepared the annual faculty dinner.

Our plans for the remaining year consist of a skating party, a trip for the junior and senior girls, a valentine party, and senior party.

In the fall of this year we sponsored a pest contest. The out-of-school boys challenged the in-school boys. The in-school boys, captained by Ivan Roth, defeated the out-of-school boys, captained by Stanley Allison. For their efforts they were taken to a hockey game by the out-of-school boys.

We again had quite a successful basketball season. We played other F.F.A. teams, and also some other community teams.

Money making activities this year included dances at the Decatur Youth and Community Center.

In judging contests the chapter usually participates in three contests—land judging, crop judging and live-stock judging. The Decatur team came out 10th in a group of 21 teams participating in the land judging contest.

Our two delegates to the state convention at Purdue came home with many new ideas.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club organized soon after the opening of school. The first thing done was that the officers were elected and the following four were chosen:

Karen Allison	President
Mary Lou Gaunt	Vice-President
Sharon Idlewine	Secretary
Judy Gephart	Treasurer

There are two types of projects that the Commercial Club performs. One of them is giving typing awards to those students who have earned them. For a 35-word award, you can obtain a certificate. For the 40-50-60-70, you can win a pin. We are hoping this year there will be more awards won than ever in the past.

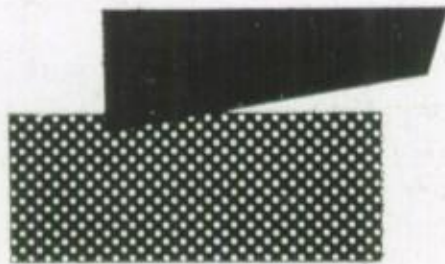

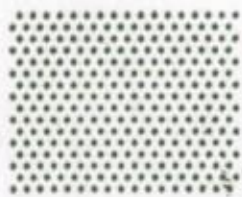

The second project is preparing and printing the Gabfest. The advanced typing class worked hard and carefully to produce the Gabfest. We hope that those who read it will enjoy it now as well as in twenty years. May you have many chuckles.

SPEECH CLASS

The Speech Class is one of the more active classes at D. H. S. Early in September, seventeen nervous Seniors gave their first speeches. Marilyn Jefferies, Donna Small, Sara Brunnegraff, Twannette Magley, and Sharon Michaud presented a panel discussion for the Women's Club. The topic was "Are Teenagers Losing the Art of Good Grooming and Good Manners?"

Several students participated in the American Legion Oratorical contest. Paul Schmidt advanced to the finals of this contest. Barbara Suttles, Sue Petrie, and Jerry Kaehr also participated in this contest.

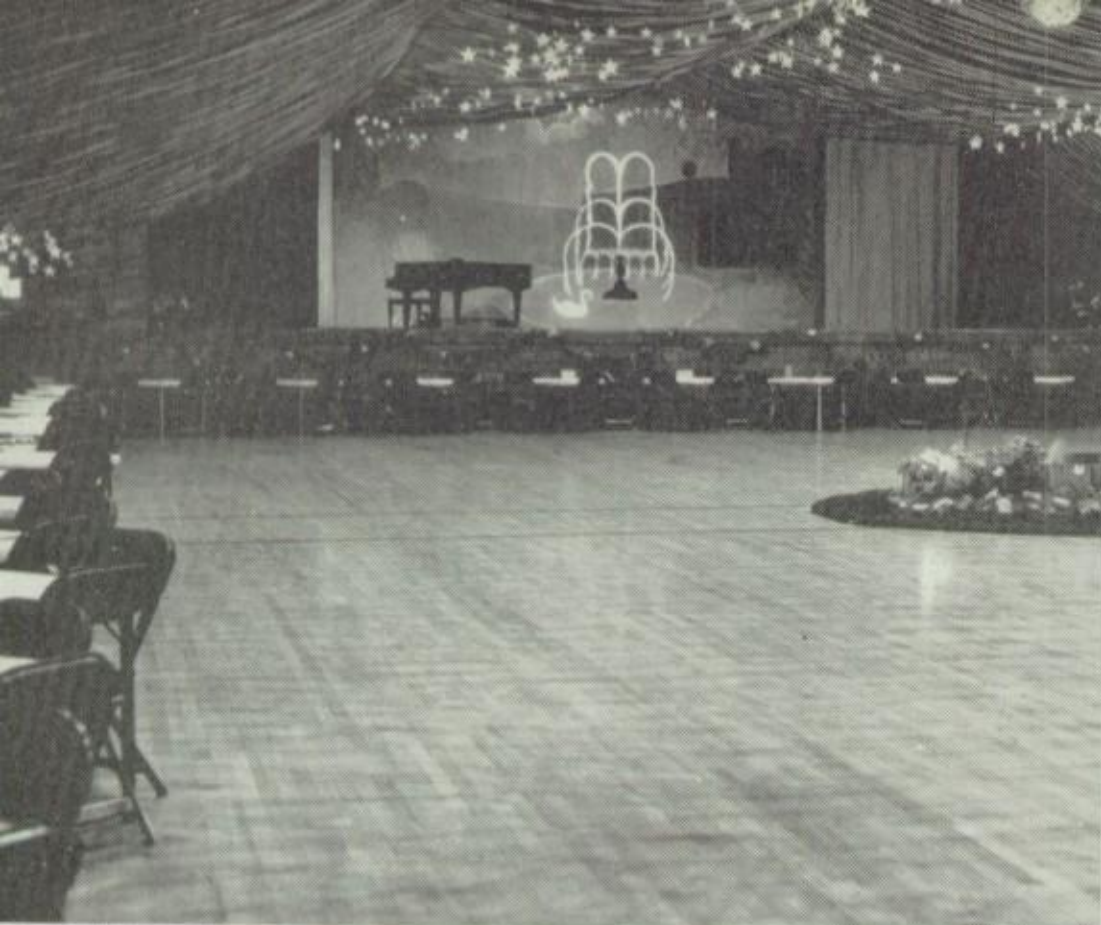

Ellen Welch proceeded four steps in the Rotary contest. Also competing in the local contest were Chalmer Reinking, John Dorwin, Gene Baxter, and Ed Bean.

Decatur participated in two Junior Town meetings this year. "Do Teenagers Sufficiently Respect Others and the Properties of Others?" was the topic of debate for the first meeting with Hoagland. The speakers from Decatur were Sue Petrie and Mailyn Jefferies. The second Junior Town Meeting was held at Sturgis, Michigan with Gene Baxter and Ed Bean discussing the topic "Are There Enough Incentives to Recruit More and Better Teachers?"

The speech class sponsored a "Talent Tumble Dance," which featured a stage show. The last activity of the year was a banquet held at the Youth Center.

All members of the Speech Class, under the instruction of Mr. Dorwin, have had very valuable experiences which will aid them in future years.

FOOTBALL

Sixty candidates reported for the first practice this year under the able leadership of coaches Worthman and Leitz. In this group were twelve returning lettermen around whom the team was built.

The Jackets opened the season away from home by defeating the Auburn Red Devils, 21-0 while Coach Worthman was in the hospital, flat on his back. We squeaked through the next game at home with the New Haven Bulldogs. They had a lot of scrap, but the Jackets saved the day by a score of 14-7. Next we defeated the big Hartford City Airedales 19-6. The Garrett Raiders were next on the schedule; they proved to be the roughest so far in the season. In spite of several injuries the Jackets fought and showed their spirit right down until the final gun. The score does not tell the story, but we were on the short end of a 6-19 tally.

Our next game found us entertaining the Portland Panthers, whom we defeated 15-0. The Jackets then traveled to Fort Wayne, where they met the Concordia Cadets. In a hard fought game we were defeated 14-21. We next tangled with the Bluffton Tigers on their field, and although we enjoyed a lead at one time, they came back to defeat us 28-24. We journeyed to Columbia City, where we were given a real fight; but we came out on top, 14-13 to defeat the Eagles. Our last game of the season found the Jackets at Kendallville, pitted against the Comets. This was one game that we were not going to lose, and we didn't. The final score was 20-7 in our favor, with the Jackets on Kendallville's five yard line at the gun.

Members of the All-Conference First Team were Tony Kelly, John Isch, and Ted Hutker. Gene Baxter was elected to the Second Team, and Fred Schott and John Hebble were given honorable mention.

The lettermen included: (seniors)—G. Baxter, S. Kirkpatrick, E. Bean, D. Agler, F. Schott, T. Schrock, J. Hullinger, J. Isch, T. Kelly, J. Dorwin, J. Ladd, and J. Gould; (juniors)—T. Hutker, T. Ballard, F. Locke, B. Banks, J. Hebble, L. Moses, J. Macklin, and T. Strickler; (sophomores)—L. Ritter, T. Holtsberry, P. Franklin, and B. Shraluka.

The team this year has shown what the right attitude and a little spirit can do. Good luck next year!

BASKETBALL

The basketball team this year had one of the finest records in years with 16 victories and 6 defeats.

The season was opened against Monmouth whom we defeated 56-40. Geneva was our next victim 76-64. Our second away game was against Bluffton and we came out on the long end of a 57-46 score. Then came Concordia whom we defeated on our court, 65-60. This was our first conference win. The Jackets traveled to Berne where they trimmed the Bears by a 69-40 count. We then were invaded by a good Elwood team who beat us for our first defeat of the season, 60-58. We defeated Columbia City 61-51 in a conference game.

In the holiday tourney at Elmhurst the Jackets defeated Elmhurst 51-33 and were then defeated by Central Catholic 71-60.

Our next game was also with Central Catholic and we were beaten on their court, 74-66. Elmhurst came to Decatur and were disappointed again by a 72-48 score.

In one of the Jackets' best games of the year they defeated the Vikings of Huntington 87-63. At Auburn, we defeated the Red Devils for the first time in many years, 69-49. In two conference games we beat Kendallville 69-54 and Bluffton 64-56. The Jackets really went wild against Angola scoring 93 points to their 65. In a double overtime conference game, New Haven defeated us 61-59. We journeyed to Portland and all twelve Jackets scored in our 84-44 victory.

Playing at Garrett for the conference championship, we were defeated 38-34, but in the last regular game we defeated Butler 67-61.

We whipped Monmouth in the first game of the sectional 47-28, but were then defeated by the Berne Bears in a double overtime, 44-42.

Lettermen include: Seniors—Gene Baxter, Tony Kelly, John Dorwin, Stan Kirkpatrick, Ted Schrock, Chalmer Reinking, Jay Gould; Juniors—Larry Moses, Bob Banks, Ted Hutker, and Sophomore—Bob Shraluka.

Baseball

The baseball team has improved over last year's record and had a good season with several games remaining to be played.

Returning lettermen from last year were Kelly, Baxter, Kirkpatrick, Schrock, Ballard, and Shraluka.

With four starters graduating, there will need to be some rebuilding of next year's team and the staff wishes good luck to next year's team.

Those games remaining on the schedule, but not yet played at the time of going to press include Columbia City, Van Wert, Portland, Bluffton, and Concordia.

The season record to date is:

	US	THEY
Kendallville	10	3
Concordia	6	1
Columbia City	3	5
New Haven	1	15
Bluffton	3	2
Marion (Double header)	0-0	5-4

 2nd Row: John Shaffer, John Hebble, Dave Eichenauer, Gary Sheets, Pat Nelson, Ted Hutker, Fred Locke, Larry Moses, Bob Banks, Jack Macklin, Dave Butcher, John Sheets.

TRACK

This year the track team broke about even in the won-lost column, and pulled off a surprise or two. Due to unfavorable weather, only nine meets were held this year including the Conference and Sectional meets with the Sectional yet to be run. The Jackets defeated Pleasant Mills and Ossian in a triangular meet.

In another triangular meet the Jackets came out third against Huntington and Mississinewa. Portland defeated us in a dual meet at our home field. The Jackets overpowered Adams Central in a dual meet. We came out second in a meet with Bluffton and Ossian.

At the N.E.I.C. conference meet, Moses was second in the low hurdles; Alger tied for fourth in high jump; Ladd tied for third in broad jump, and the half-mile relay team (Hutker, Banks, Dorwin, Moses) was third. As a team Decatur placed fifth of seven teams. Concordia defeated us in a dual meet. We whipped Huntertown in a dual meet.

Returning lettermen from last year were Isch, Bean, Schott, Gould, Dorwin, Agler, Alger, Ladd, Lobsiger, Hullinger, Macklin, Banks, Eichenauer, J. Sheets, D. Butcher, Hutker, and Locke.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross Country has advanced in two years with increasing popularity. The team lost all of its four meets but had only two returning lettermen and lacked team balance. Decatur entered the Sectional in Fort Wayne and placed nineteenth among twenty-two schools. Chalmer Reinking and Ron Heshner were elected co-captains and with these two boys the only seniors the team looks forward to next season with great enthusiasm.

This year's lettermen are: seniors—Chalmer Reinking and Ron Heshner; juniors—Dave Butcher, Jim Baumgartner, and John Sheets; sophomores—Larry Daniels. Freshman letters were awarded to Jerry McIntosh and Dave Clark.

Kneeling: Steve Buher.

Standing, First Row: Ronnie Heshner, Dave Clark, Jerry McIntosh, Larry Daniels.

Second Row: John Sheets, Chalmer Reinking, Dave Butcher, Jim Baumgartner, Lanny Ross.

Golf

Coach Harry Dailey

There were ten students out for golf this year. Paul Schmidt was the only senior and the only returning letterman. Others were Richard Leming—junior; Mike Beery, Steve Edwards, Nick Conrad, Jim Burk, and Leroy Ratliff—sophomores; and Ron Highland, Dave Sheets, and Jack Dailey—freshmen. Fourteen matches were scheduled for this year plus the N.E.I.C. and Sectional.

Due to inexperience, the team did not have as successful a season this year as one could desire, but with so many underclassmen available for next year, we should have a much stronger group.

The team played the following schools: Concordia, South Side, Elmhurst, Garrett, Kendallville, New Haven, Central, and Central Catholic.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

Sitting: Larry Macklin, John Patterson, Mgrs.
Kneeling: Max Eichenauer, Jim Elliott, Ronnie August, Al Townsend, Tom Grabill.
Standing: John Cowens, Tom Johnson, Stewart Knodel, Rudy Kleinknight, Mike Drake, Ronnie Kleinknight, Tom Sharpe, Ed Nelson, Jim Cancino.

EIGHTH GRADE CHEERLEADERS

Mary Heller, Dianna Hill, Sharon Nern.

Junior High Basketball

In junior high basketball this year we had an average season. We won 7 games and lost 8. Team members were Steve Knodel, Tom Johnson, Ton August, Mike Drake, John Cowan, Ed Nelson, Tom Grabill and Jim Cancino from the eighth grade; Max Eichenauer, Dennis Bollenbacher, Ron Kleinknight, Rudy Kleinknight, and Al Townsend from the seventh grade.

Autographs

A simple line drawing of a young boy walking towards the right. He is wearing a short-sleeved shirt, trousers, and shoes with socks. A backpack is on his back, and he is holding a small object in his right hand.
